

Yolanda Randall

Yolanda Randall (affectionately called, “Yolie”) is a true “Servant of God.” She has served as a missionary for 27 years through her local church, West Angeles COGIC; traveling across the globe to more than 15 countries. She is a loving and devoted wife and mother to her handsome grown son Darius. Yolie brings a wealth of experience to KGM in serving, planning and understanding the various dynamics of doing ministry nationally and internationally.

Yolie comes from a large family of 6 siblings which explains her joyful sacrificial devotion to family and ministry. The fine arts (designing, building, drawing) are other notable gifts that she shares with others purely as a labor of love bringing sheer delight to all she blesses. Yolie is a nurturer at heart and evangelism is in her soul. Through Yolie’s missionary journeys she’s always loved working with children and teens and she currently serves as a mentor with the Los Angeles, CA based nonprofit organization, “Making Choices,” a non-profit mentoring program for teenage girls.
